Worth Ranch

Worth Ranch, known as "The Big Adventure," has been a Longhorn Council tradition since 1929. Worth is one of America's oldest and finest traditional Scouting programs. We are located 60 miles west of Fort Worth on the Brazos River at the foot of Kyle Mountain. The historic stone and petrified wood buildings that encircle our parade ground showcase the rich and colorful history of Worth Ranch. Comanche Indians once lived on our parade ground, and Quannah Parker, the last great war chief of the Comanche, was born only a few miles up the Brazos River. The chuck wagon was developed near here in 1866.

When your troop attends Worth Ranch you'll receive traditional Scouting at its best from our talented staff and outstanding program facilities. Your Scouts can climb and rappel on the cliffs of our Climbing Gardens, fish, row, canoe and kayak with us on the Brazos River, hike Kyle Mountain, swim and play water basketball & volleyball in our 2 pools, see outstanding campfire programs, and eat in our big air-conditioned Duncan Dining Hall. 2013 High Adventure SPECIAL: for each Scout attending one of our Boy Scout summer camps you get $20 off one person attending high adventure. End of Summer SPECIAL: participants get $10 off and no O/C fees for Week 3.

Camp Leadership

All units in camp must be under the leadership of 2 adults at all times, one of whom must be over 21, the other at least 18 years of age. Leaders may rotate if necessary, but at least 2 adults must be with a unit each 24 hours in camp. All adults arriving at camp must present the camp director a copy of their current Youth Protection Training card from BSA's Texas-approved YPT classroom course; OR, take the course on arrival (1hr). Troops may share leadership by prior arrangement.

Health and Safety

Parts A, B, & C, of the current BSA Annual Health and Medical Record are mandatory for ALL youth and adult campers. This health history, parental/guardian informed consent and hold harmless/release agreement, and talent release statement is to be completed by each participant and by Scout's parents/guardians. The new BSA medical form no longer allows attaching another physical exam (ie: sports physical) to the form.

All Scouts and adults in camp are now required to have their current BSA health form supported by a medical examination within the last 12 months. Youth medical forms MUST INCLUDE all required parental signatures, including those giving permission to treat in an emergency.

All youth and adults must have a medical screening upon arrival, including late arrivals. All illnesses MUST be reported promptly. The camp reserves the right to refuse admittance to any camper who, in the opinion of the medical staff and Camp Director, has developed a physical or medical situation which could present a hazard to the camper, or to other campers, by their presence at camp.

All Longhorn Council registered campers are covered by an accident and insurance policy. Out of Council units must provide a copy of their accident insurance. All accidents and illnesses must be reported to the camp Health Officer. The unit leadership should file claims for all medical care not provided by the Health Officer. Medical expenses incurred after leaving camp, due to an accident taking place at camp and registered with the Health Officer, must be submitted immediately to the Council office for clearance with the insurance company.

Pre–Camp Leader's Meeting

A pre–camp information meeting for all unit leaders will be held on Wednesday evening of the week prior to your arrival in camp at 7:00 PM at the Council office. Meetings for Sid Richardson Scout Ranch, Worth Ranch, Chisholm Trail, Brazos River Trip, and Steele Island Wakeboarding are at the Fort Worth office. Meetings for Camp Tahuaya are at the Waco office. If your unit must travel a long distance you can do your final attendance updates and info by email or phone with the Camp Director or Camping Registrar.

Guidelines for Pre-Camp Swim Tests

Units may elect to take swim tests before arrival at camp. Pre-Camp swim test significantly speeds up the check-in process on your arrival at camp.

Requirements for Pre-camp Swim Tests

We can honor pre-camp swim tests only if the required paperwork is properly completed.

1. Tests must be performed in accordance with BSA Swimming test standards.
2. Must be supervised by a certified BSA, Red Cross, YMCA Lifeguard, or Swim Coach. BRING A PHOTOCOPY of the Lifeguard's CERTIFICATION Card. This is required. Be sure that the copy includes the expiration date of the lifeguard's certification – copy both sides if the card is 2-sided.

2. Bring a list of youth and adults who took the test showing the skill level they earned in the test: Swimmer, Beginner, or Non-Swimmer. The list must be signed by the unit leader and the certifying lifeguard and include a note attesting that the swim test was conducted according to the BSA requirements listed below.

Classification of Swimming Ability

The BSA Swimmer Test

The swimmer test demonstrates the minimum level of swimming ability required for safe deep-water swimming. The various components of the test evaluate the several skills essential to this minimum level of swimming ability: Jump feet first into water over the head in depth, level off, and begin swimming. Swim 75 yards in a strong manner using one or more of the following strokes: sidestroke, breaststroke, trudgen, or crawl; then swim 25 yards using an easy, resting backstroke. The 100 yards must be completed in one swim without stops and must include at least one sharp turn. After completing the swim, rest by floating. The test administrator must objectively evaluate the individual performance of the test, and in so doing should keep in mind the purpose of each test element.

"Jump feet first into water over the head in depth, level off, and begin swimming. . . ."

The swimmer must be able to make an abrupt entry into deep water and begin swimming without any aids. Walking in from shallow water, easing in from the edge or down a ladder, pushing off from side or bottom, or gaining forward momentum by diving do not satisfy this requirement.

". . . Swim 75 yards in a strong manner using one or more of the following strokes: sidestroke, breaststroke, trudgen, or crawl; . . ."

The swimmer must be able to cover distance with a strong, confident stroke. The 75 yards must not be the outer limit of the swimmer's ability; completion of the distance should give evidence of sufficient stamina to avoid undue risks. Dog-paddling and strokes repeatedly interrupted and restarted are not sufficient; underwater swimming is not permitted. The itemized strokes are inclusive. Any strong side or breaststroke or any strong overarm stroke (including the back crawl) is acceptable.

". . . swim 25 yards using an easy, resting backstroke . . ."

The swimmer must indicate the ability to execute a restful, free-breathing backstroke that can be used to avoid exhaustion during swimming activity. This element of the test necessarily follows the more strenuous swimming activity to show that the swimmer is, in fact, able to use the backstroke as a relief from exertion. The change of stroke must be accomplished in deep water without any push-off or other aid. Any variation of the elementary may suffice if it clearly provides opportunity for the swimmer to rest and regain wind.

". . . The 100 yards must be swum continuously and include at least one sharp turn. . . ."

The total distance is to be covered without rest stops. The sharp turn simply demonstrates the swimmer's ability to reverse direction in deep water without assistance or push-off from side or bottom.

". . . After completing the swim, rest by floating."

This critically important component of the test evaluates the swimmer's ability to maintain in the water indefinitely even though exhausted or otherwise unable to continue swimming. Treading water or swimming in place will further tire the swimmer and are therefore unacceptable. The duration of the float test is not significant, except that it must be long enough for the test administrator to determine that the swimmer is, in fact, resting and could likely continue to do so for a prolonged time. The drown-proofing technique may be sufficient if clearly restful, but it is not preferred. If the test is completed except for the floating requirement, the swimmer may be retested on the floating only (after instruction) provided that the test administrator is confident that the swimmer can initiate the float when exhausted.

The Beginner Test

Jump feet-first into water over the head in depth, level off, swim 25 feet on the surface, stop, turn sharply, resume swimming as before, and return to starting place. The entry and turn serve the same purpose as in the swimmer test. The swimming can be done with any stroke, but no underwater swimming is permitted. The stop assures that the swimmer can regain a stroke if it is interrupted. The test demonstrates that the beginning swimmer is ready to learn deepwater skills and has the minimum ability required for safe swimming in a confined area in which shallow water, sides, or other support is less than 25 feet from any point in the water.
