HONORING
DR. JOSEPH HARRINGTON, ED.D
SUPERINTENDENT OF HEB ISD

Join us for a meaningful morning as we celebrate the legacy and future of Scouting in our community! This premier Annual event brings together community leaders and supporters of the Longhorn Council, Scouting America, to honor outstanding achievements and invest in the next generation of leaders. Your participation directly supports youth across North and Central Texas, providing life-changing experiences that foster character, leadership, and citizenship. Join us in recognizing these remarkable leaders and their dedication to service in our community!

2025 HONOREES

Dr. Joseph Harrington, Ed.D. – Superintendent of Hurst-Eules-Bedford Independent School District with 35 years of experience in education. Dr. Harrington is dedicated to empowering students through his leadership in HEB ISD and his active involvement in the Mid-Cities Pacesetters Rotary Club and Ash Lane Methodist Church.

Mayor Henry Wilson – A devoted public servant of Hurst since 1969 and City Council member since 1985. With a background in aerospace engineering at Bell Helicopter and teaching at Tarrant County College, Mayor Wilson has played a pivotal role in the growth and leadership of Northeast Tarrant County.
